

"EXHIBIT NO. 4"

I, Charles W. Kidd, of Frederick County, Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, that is to say:

After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I give, bequeath and devise as follows:

Item: I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Jennie S. Kidd, all my personal estate of every kind and description, including mixed, to keep, use and do with and dispose of as she may deem best; but any part or portion of the same which may be remaining in her possession undisposed of at the time of her death to be converted into cash and distributed by my executor under the provisions of the hereinafter contained residuary clause.

Item: All the rest and residue of my estate I give, devise and bequeath unto my said wife, Jennie S. Kidd, for and during her natural life time, and after her death the same to be sold and converted into cash by my hereinafter named executor and the net proceeds thereof, together with such cash ~~by me~~ as he may derive by the conversion of any property under the provisions of the preceding "Item" hereof, are to be distributed equally, share and share alike, amongst my five children; viz., Raymond C. Kidd, Charles N. Kidd, William E. Kidd, Ethel J. Lawson wife of John Lawson, and Edith H. Pearl wife of Ray Pearl.

And lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint and constitute my said Wife, Jennie S. Kidd, to be the executrix, and my said son Charles N. Kidd, to be executor of this my last will and testament, both to act without bond, hereby revoking and making null and void all former wills by me heretofore made, and ratifying and confirming this and none other as and for my last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 23rd day of August A.D., 1932.

CHARLES W. KIDD.
